FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE WELLNESS COMMUNITY WELCOMES THREE NEW BOARD MEMBERS

St. Louis, Mo. — The Wellness Community of Greater St. Louis, a non-profit cancer organization dedicated to providing free emotional support, education, and hope to those living with cancer and their loved ones, is pleased to announce the addition of three new members to its Board of Directors. New Board members include Mitchell Baris, President of Enterprise Bank & Trust; Norma Lewis, of Hauck Lewis Business Services; and Mary Reitz, Officer in the Litigation Practice Group of Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, P.C. The Wellness Community recognizes each new board member for their outstanding commitment to philanthropic causes in our community and thanks them for their commitment to providing uplifting support and services at no charge to cancer patients and their families in the Greater St. Louis area.

ABOUT THE WELLNESS COMMUNITY OF GREATER ST. LOUIS

The Wellness Community of Greater St. Louis is part of an international non-profit organization dedicated to providing free support, education and hope to people with cancer and their loved ones. Through participation in professionally led support groups, educational workshops and mind/body classes, people affected by cancer learn vital skills that enable them to regain control, reduce isolation and restore hope regardless of their stage of disease. Most importantly, The Wellness Community provides a home-like setting for people fighting cancer to connect with and learn from each other. At The Wellness Community, all programs are free of charge.
